INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determing the eligbility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records(filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of September 11, 1907, you are advised that your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund has not been reached for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not you are entitled to share in this fund.

As there are over 43,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Laura Nations, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 43 years of age; was born in Jackson County, N.C. I claim Indian blood through my mother. I do not think she ever received any Indian money from the government. She died when she was about 18 years of age. I am related to Ben Hyde. I never saw my grandmother who was a Hyde. She lived in Jackson County, N.C. She claimed her Indian blood through the Walkers. I first heard of my Indian blood about 13 years ago. I made an application then before the Dawes Commission. I did not get the allotment. I am not enrolled herewith the Indians. I do not remember when Hester made his enrollment and was not enrolled. Knew nothing of my Indian blood then. My children go to the white schools. My mother went to the white schools and I did too. I do not speak the Indian language and am not recognized by these Indians here as an Indian. My mother and grandmother were recognized white women.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of September 12, 1907, you are advised that your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund has not been reached for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not you are entitled to share in this fund.

As there are over 43,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Dear Sir:
yours of the 21st. relative to apln. no 29345 recd.
I cannot give you very much information in regard to it. Of course we all know that there is Brerokee blood in us-it shows very plain. but none of us have ever paid very much attention to it. Grandpa Clingman always spoke in connection with Bettie Pledge and Thomas Poindexter of the Cherokee tribe.

My Aunt Jane P. Jones
says that things come to her mind now, that she heard when a little child but didn't understand at that time.
That her Uncle Harry Poindexter moved to Ark.

while she was small and spoke of the Eastern Shore
the treaty & suppose that he participated in it, and spoke of an inheritance that was coming from
it. I don't know whether any of them were enrolled or not: or if any were ever slaves or not. But some of us are black enough to have been.
The Poindexters used to live in Va. Then in W. C. It may have been the distance from the place of enrollment.

Grandfather (A. B.) Blingman has been dead for about 30 yrs. I think every one that I have ever talked too that knew him spoke of him as the "Indian preacher".
Hoping that there is some clew in this that you can get at. I am,
Very respct.

Ann M. Harris being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 53 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through my mother; my father was a full blooded white man. My husband is a white man. My mother's father claimed to be Indian. His name was Alexander Clingman. My mother was born in Arkansas (Clark Co) if I remember right. She lived there untilshe was married and then -she lived in Pope Co., Ark. where she died. She died in 1861 and was somewhere about thirty years ofage. My grandfather Clingman came from N. C., Huntsville - I think. Don't know when he was born. Don't know how much older he was than my mother. He has been dead 27 or 28 years. Don't know whether he or my mother ever lived with the Indians. They were recognized as white people. My grandfather was 1/8 Cherokee. Neither of them were on any rolls that I ever heard of. They did not get anything from the government. I never received any money from the government myself. This is the only application I ever made for Indian benefits. Jane Poindexter Jones, my mother's sister, lives in Clark Co., Ark. Mattie Beir or Bier, is another sister of my mother, and she lives at Vanalstyne, Tex. The brother's name is Arthur Clingman, and he lives at Keithville, La.

Sir:-

In the matter of the Eastern Cherokee Enrollment, you are advised that in the cases of John Biddy, No. 14562, and Luther M. It will be nessary for you to furnish aditional proof, by which their rights and the rights of those claiming through them may be established.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Job F. Allen being first duly sworn deposes and says:

I am 57 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through my father. My father claimed through his mother. My father was born in 1820 in Randolph County, North Carolina. My father and his parents left North Carolina when he was about seven years of age and moved to Richmond, Indiana. He lived in Indiana until he was of age then moved to Ohio. My father then came to Cass County, Missouri in 1873. Neither my father or his mother ever lived with the Indians as a member of the tribe. My father claimed to be about 1/16 Cherokee. My father's great grandmother was named Martha Elmore who married a Sanders. She was born in 1752 in Guilford County, N. C. and died in 1817 in the same County. She was a full blood Cherokee woman. She was one of six Indian girls that stayed back in North Carolina to be educated and did not come west when the other Indians did and after she was educated she married a citizen or North Carolina and remained in that state. X I and my father made application to the Laws Commission but was rejected. My wife is a white woman. We have no children. I haven't any brothers or sisters living. I am recognized in the community where I live as a white man. Neither my father, his mother o myself ever received any land or money from the Government by reason of our Indian blood.

Margaret Hale being first duly sworn in behalf of herself, ~~xisax#~~ also #41567, deposes and says:

That I am 62 years of age and live in Campbell Co., Tenn. I claim my Indian descent on my mother's side. My father was a white man. I am a full sister to William Hawkins, Sr. Wm. Hawkins, Jr. who has filed application #41567 is my nephew. He claims through his father, my brother. His mother is white. My mother was called a quarteroon, and my grandfather Reed was 1/2 Indian. My grandmother Reed was white. My mother was born in N. C. or Tenn. She was raised in Tenn. They came to this state some years before I was born. They came to Knox Co., Tenn. from N. C. ~~Exnevat~~ I nor my mother never lived among the Indians as a member of the tribe. I nor my mother were never on any Indian roll. I don't think my grandfather Reed was. He died in 1877. I am recognized as white in the community. My husband was part Indian. His father was about a whole Indian. His mother was a white woman. My husband's father's name was Ephraim Hale. He was born in Cherokee Co., N. C. I don't know whether he lived among the Indians or not. He left N. C. before the Civil War. He was never enrolled that I know of. He never had any brothers and sisters that I know of. This is the only application I ever made for Indian benefits. None of my ancestors were on any Indian roll that I ever knew. They never had any Indian names that I know of. My grandfather's mother was Fanny Tye or Tie. She was a full blood. She died shortly after I was born. She died on a trip to N. C. on the Hiawassee River. She was never on any roll that I know of. I don't know whether she ever lived with the Indians or not. She went backwards and forwards in this country. If she had any brothers and sisters, I don't know them. John Reed had a brother Jim. Had no sisters. Fanny Tye went by the name of Reed after he married Reed.

#29431 Miscel.

Maynard Woods being first duly sworn, depo es and says:

That I am 54 years of age and live in Campbell Co., Tenn. I claim through my father; my mother is full blooded white woman. My father was raised in Union Co., Tenn. Don't know where he was born. My father was in the war, has been dead about 20 years and he was in the eighties when he died. My father's parents I don't know and don't know which was the Indian. When the Indians were leaving this country my father's parents gave him away. My father claimed to be 1/2 Cherokee. The name of the man to whom my grandparents gave my father was Mc Broom. My father never was on any roll that I know of. I don't know whether my father ever lived with the Indians or not. There is no way of getting my father's parents names. Don't know whether my father ever had any Indian name or not. Don't know whether he ever had any brothers or sisters and he didn't know. My father never applied for any Indian benefits. This is the only application I ever made. I am recognized as a white man with some Indian. My wife is a white woman. She claims to be some Indian herself but she has never applied. She is connected with the Indians Bowlins in Scott Co., Tenn. She was never on any roll that I know of. My father was a small boy when he was given to Johnnie Mc Broom. He had no recollection whatever of his parents. If my father was ever on any roll it would have been under the name of Woods. My father talked Indian a good deal. When I was a little boy the Indians stayed with my father in passing through. They wanted me to go with them. My father was willing for me to go but my mother wouldn't.

Signature of Witness.

Subscribed and sworn to before me at Coal Creek, Tenn. this 30th day of June 1908.

Applicant shows considerable indication of Indian. Proof insufficient.
